Winter vacation soon...

New Year has already come and winter vacation is coming soon. I am very happy because I will have a short break from learning. Probably, each pupil is glad when holidays are because there are neither tests nor homework. I like these short winter vacations, because this time there is always someone who makes sleigh rides and I always fall into the biggest snowbank, but I got accustomed to snow because unfortunately, I am washed with it every year. What I like most in this season is winter holiday because, I admit, winter is not my best friend. Unfortunately, I am not fond of the season because I always feel cold.
